Lok Sabha Election 2024 : 1-Tripura West PC
Timely action against the received complaints for violation of Model Code of Conduct : Returning Officer

Timely action against the received complaints for violation of Model Code of Conduct is being continued in 1- Tripura West parliamentary Constituency as intimated by Dr. Vishal Kumar , the Returning Officer through a Press Note on today.

With respect to one complaint raised by Mr. Ashok Sinha, co-convenor BJP Tripura Pradesh regarding defacement at Buddha Mandir / VIP area, the Flying Squad Team arrived at the spot and removed all the defacement swiftly.

Regarding one other complaint of removal of INC flags from Buddha Mandir area by some unidentified miscreants, lodged by Mr. Sudip Roy Barman, Member, TLA Executive Member TPCC, SP West has been requested to identify the miscreants from the CCTV footage and bind the offenders under appropriate law.

Acting on the press clipping published in the “Planet East” on 16/4/24 wherein it was stated that one Mr. Ratan Chandra Das of Agartala Municipal Library taking part in a political campaign, same was enquired by ARO, 9-Banamalipur Assembly Segment and it was found that Mr. Ratan Chandra Das, Group-D employee of AMC is involved in election campaigning. In this regard a proposal for suspension against the concerned official as per Service Conduct Rules has been sent to the Municipal Commissioner, AMC.

The Administration is proactively addressing all the violations of MCC. Widespread patrolling is done by the police in all the areas. There is strict surveillance through Static Surveillance Team and Flying Squads over all the areas of the constituency. Strict instructions have been given to AROs, Sector Officers and Police Sector officers as well as CAPF to ensure zero violation of rules.
